Colour My World
Concert Review

Where do I begin? The stupendous performances? The exquisite costumes? Whatever you’re looking for, you’ll find everything right here! If YOU want to be phenomenally entertained, come to West Pennant Hills Public School to catch the ‘Colour My World’ dance performance! It’s on 6pm from Monday to Wednesday, 24–26 November 2014 in the school hall, starring student from K–6. Get your tickets quickly, because moms and dads and family members alike will desire by colour, swiftly moving strobe lights, and mystical haze machines (in the best possible way). It’s the best performance in the world! But hurry, as this exclusive production occurs only once every 2 years!

As well as captivating dances, the breaks in-between that introduce the next dance are interesting and engaging. With intensely vivid coloured slides, euphoric pop music and the entertaining pre-recorded voices of students, the slides are a definite improvement from previous years where they had 2 people trying (but failing) to make conversation while introducing the next dance.

The very first dance was KR, with the theme ‘Following a Rainbow’. With rainbow coloured dresses and smiles that looked like flippers had been super-glued inside their mouths, these miniature cuties had repetitive, simple movements that were understandable since, of course, they were in kindergarten. But I find amazing is the fact that all signs of nerves (because they were the VERY FIRST DANCE) melted away as soon as ‘Rainbow’ by Colbie Caillat began to play.
Another class, 6C, is the dance right before the 10 minute intermission. With the theme ‘Yellow-escent’, the song ‘Happy’ by Pharrell Williams and neon yellow costumes, everything was certainly ‘happy’ about this class with one exception: they don’t look like they’re having fun! Smile, kids! You’re on camera!

The last class I will be reviewing, and the last class in the concert, is 6W. With the theme ‘Green Glow’ and dancing to the song ‘Everybody’ by Justice Crew, 6W’s costumes certainly live up to their name. I will not spoil anything (except that 6W really does ‘glow’ in their performance. They really do ‘pop’!), for I feel that 6W’s outstanding performance is the most appetising and will having you walk away with a full stomach.

Overall, I highly recommend this outstanding performance of dazzling dances. Whether you seek fabulous dancing, a fun night out, or even just any colour you could ever imagine, the West Pennant Hills Public School ‘Colour My World’ dance concert is a must-see. I honestly cannot find a flaw with any of the performances. Why waste time sitting at home, watching TV, when you can go watch this outstanding concert? All the students have learnt a lot in preparation for the concert: resilience, cooperation and teamwork, just to name a few. For all these reasons, I proudly rate this stunning, outstanding dance performance 20 out of 10, but only if it was possible. 😊
